

CARRISA VALLEY

Discover a sanctuary of love, togetherness, and nature's wild embrace.

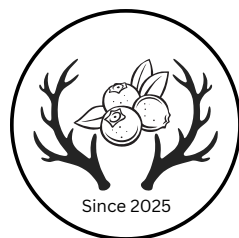

Carrisa Valley is more than a resort, it is a living experience. Owned by the Vare family, this valley invites you to share in its harmony of love, culture, and nature. Here, you don't just watch the wilderness; you live within it. From pottery to paddy fields, from trekking to temple visits, every corner carries a story.

Set against the backdrop of Jhambhli's rich landscapes and culture, Carrisa Valley brings people together families, friends, explorers, and dreamers. It is a place where you can connect, slow down, and find beauty in simplicity.

CARRISA VALLEY

Wake up to the calls of nature, trek along forested trails, and share your day with the wild animals who call this place home.

Savor meals crafted with love by local hands, celebrating age-old recipes and farm-fresh ingredients. Every plate tells a story of the valley.

CARRISA VALLEY

Try your hand at pottery, join in farming activities, or splash through the paddy fields an experience that leaves you grounded and joyful.

Bow your head at Raireshwar, boat along the river, ride horses by the Dhom Dam, and end the day under a sky lit with fireflies.
